"Practice Makes a Man Perfect"

The legal profession requires a deep understanding of the law, strong analytical skills, excellent communication and advocacy abilities. The legal profession is the noblest profession in the world. The main objective of "The Professional Panel of ALC" is to enhance leadership qualities, law practices, legal ethics and norms in the students.

This panel enables the students of ALC to know all basic techniques of law practice, decorum of court and legal drafting. For this, the professional panel of ALC manages many visits to the District Judiciary Sargodha and meetings with senior lawyers of District Bar Association Sargodha (DBAS) each year.

It is the goal of the professional panel of ALC to enrich the students of the final year with all techniques of interpretation of law, legal drafting skills and court decorum. To fulfill this objective, The Professional Panel also manages frequent visits of ALC students to the District Courts, High Court & Supreme Court for the understanding of trial proceedings as well as court decorum and court appearance.

ALC arranges the meetings with well-known lawyers of Pakistan, judges and other officers of concerned departments of Pakistan and also manages many workshops & seminars at college.

The External linkages department is committed to foster strategic partnership with legal practitioners, judicial bodies, government agencies and other key stakeholders. Our primary goal is to bridge the gap between academia and the legal profession, providing students with invaluable opportunities for practical exposure, research collaboration and professional development. By cultivating strong relationship with legal community, we aim to enhance the reputation of the Law College as a leading institution preparing competent lawyers. The External Linkages Department operates under four different phases, managed by following committees.

- 1 Academic Enrichment Committee
- 2 Courts Liaison Committee
- 3 The Legal Explorer Committee
- 4 Bureaucrats Liaison Committee

1 Academic Enrichment Committee

The purpose of this committee is to invite renowned legal practitioners and organize seminars and conferences on different topics related to legal profession. The college hosts multiple Guest Lecture Series throughout the year. The leading academicians, lawyers, bureaucrats, judges, sociologists, political scientists, islamic scholars, police officers, psychologists and media persons deliver lectures to students as well as sharing their personal and professional experiences.

2

Courts Liaison Committee

It bridges the gap between theory and practice.

The club provides:

- Early exposure to diverse fields.
- Guidance on fundamental requirements for each field.
- Personalized mentorship tailored to students' interests and abilities.
- A supportive environment to cultivate purpose and determination.

By offering experienced mentors and practical guidance, The ALC Hawks Club enables students to make informed career decisions and prepares them to move forward their aims.

The ALC Character Building Society

Supervised By:
Col. Muzaffar Iqbal (Retd)

According to a Prophetic Tradition:

إِنَّمَا بُعِثْتُ لِأَتَمِّمَ مَكَارِمَ الْأَخْلَاقِ
مجھے اخلاق کی تکمیل کیلئے مبعوث کیا گیا ہے۔

Character Building and Society are interlinked and dependent on each other. Character building plays a pivotal role for a healthy society. Character education is inevitable for students as it helps shape their social behaviour which means how they act in social setting. Character building also creates a more positive academic atmosphere. It also increases discipline values among the students. It is a character which enables a student to distinguish a right from wrong & good from evil. Nothing is precious more than the human values. Therefore, Character teaching and professional teaching must run parallel. Above in view, the prime object of this institution is to inculcate the ethical values and shape the social behaviour among the students through special lectures. students will be facilitated with the relevant books and conducive environment for the said purpose. This institute also provides different incentives for students bearing a good moral character.

The ALC Literary Society

The Literary Society in our law college focuses on promoting student's diverse skills and talents. Our objective is to enhance student's conceptual writing skills, promote their creative abilities & develop their skills through various wings.

Literary Society has Four Wings:

- 1 Drama Wing
- 2 Magazine Wing
- 3 Debate Wing
- 4 Arts & Music Wing

Supervised By:
Prof. Afzaal Ahmad

Committee Members

Drama Wing

- The drama wing aims to improve students' acting skills through theater performances.
- We believe that a good actor makes a good lawyer, as both require strong expressions, communication and emotional control.

Through drama, students learn to:

- i) Express themselves effectively
- ii) Control their emotions
- iii) Use tone, pitch and rhythm to convey their message

Magazine Wing

- For students with strong writing abilities, we offer magazine writing opportunities to polish their skills.
- This helps students develop their creative writing skills and express themselves effectively.

Debate Wing

The primary purpose of the Debate Wing is to:

- Enhance communication skills.
- Develop argumentation skills to persuasively present one's point of view.
- Through debates, students can improve their ability to articulate their thoughts, think critically and express themselves confidently.

Art & Music Wing

We also cater to students with artistic talents, such as:

- Calligraphy
- Music (singing)
- We invite professional singers and artists to mentor our students and help them develop their skills.
- The Literary Society plays a vital role in nurturing students' diverse talents and preparing them for their future careers.

The purpose of the media team is to groom the personalities of our students, improve their interactions with others and work on their facial expressions and body language. This includes developing appropriate facial expressions for various emotions and situations, such as happiness, sadness and seriousness. By working on body language and facial expressions, students can enhance their on-camera presence, self-awareness and build confidence.

The ALC Welfare Society

Headed By:
Muhammad Abubakar
 Student of LLB Part 4

Purpose of the Welfare Society:

The Welfare Society at the college aims to instill a sense of social responsibility in students, emphasizing that as human beings, our fundamental purpose is to contribute to the well-being of others.

By engaging in different social activities that benefit others, students develop a key characteristic of good citizenship.

The society's primary objectives include:

- Fostering a sense of social responsibility among students.
- Encouraging students to work for the betterment of society.
- Providing support and services to students and staff within the college.
- Developing a habit of community service among students, which will benefit them in their future professional lives.
- Inculcating essential skills and values that will enable them to make a positive impact in their communities.

Sports Gala Houses

(Maneuvering, Embracing, Traditions & Innovations)

Purpose of creating different houses is to polish each student for curricular & extra curricular activities. This grouping helps in bringing the sense of coordination among their peers as well as promoting the leadership qualities hidden within the students.

The outlet of the emotions in such a way also helps in grooming their personalities and enhancing their skills.

The students feel the sense of ownership as well as these inter house competitions enhance the different capabilities within the students.
